

AI-Proof Your Resume

Recruiters and bots screen you in the first pass. The $150 reset gets you past it.

Bots Read First

Your resume hits a filter before it hits a human. Machine-readable matters.

One Protagonist

One role, one impact, one repeated skill beats a laundry list.

Numbers Beat Adjectives

Lead lines with results, not traits. If no number fits, write a concrete outcome.

Mirror the Job

Use the posting's own words for skills and title. The filters match what they ask.

LinkedIn Carries the Theme

Keep headline, summary, and experience on one message so both readers agree.

Tonight: Cut One Role
